Coursework 30%, Final Examination 70%

Page 62: Addition of course outline. Legal Practice (DOL4500F/S) was omitted and should be included as a final level course offering.

DOL4500F/S LEGAL PRACTICE
Final level course, half course; first and second semester, two lectures per week and three compulsory clinics per semester.
9 NQF credits at HEQSF level 8
Convenor: Ms Y Moodley
This course is capped at 60 students.

Course entry requirements: All Preliminary and Intermediate Level courses to have been completed. Preference is given to final year students on a first come, first serve basis. If there are spaces available, it can be opened up to intermediate students who are on the Dean’s merit list. The course cannot accommodate more than 60 students due to capacity issues.
Course outline:
This course offers students their first opportunity of working with real clients under the guidance of attorneys at the UCT Law Clinic. Students attend a lecture and a clinical programme. There are 2 lectures/week on practical aspects of litigation. For the clinical programme students have to attend 3 clinics per semester where they consult with prospective clients and open files with a view to the clinic assisting/representing the client. At the end of this course students will be able to conduct a proper consultation with a client; draft letters, Notices, Affidavits and Pleadings; manage a typical attorney’s file; draft a will and represent a client in a simulated trial (mock trial).

DP requirements: None.
Assessment: Attendance at clinics is compulsory in order to acquire community service hours. Assignment 40%; Mock trial 20%; Assessment of file plus supervisor’s assessment: 40%.

PBL4505S INTERNATIONAL HUMAN RIGHTS LAW AND THE CONSTITUTION
(Not offered in 2020) Final Level, half course, second semester, two lectures per week.
9 NQF credits at HEQSF level 8
Convener: S Lutchman

Course entry requirements: All Preliminary and Intermediate Level courses to have been completed.

Course outline:
The course aims to examine the relationship between International Human Rights Law and the South African Constitution, particularly how international human rights norms are received and enforced under the Constitution and the extent to which the South African Bill of Rights can and does give effect to international human rights norms. It will provide participants with the opportunity to consider and critically reflect upon the relationship between international and municipal law, the development of international human rights norms and standards, the tension between universal norms and cultural specificity, the content and interpretations of the South African Bill of Rights and the suitability of domestic Bills of Rights as vehicles through which to receive and implement international human rights law.

DP requirements: Satisfactory attendance at weekly seminars.
Assessment: Written assignments and class participation 40%. One written examination (2 hours) 60%.
